

CREW OF U.S. SUBMARINE RESCUED AFTER BEING TRAPPED UNDER SEAS

Four Officers and Twenty Four Men Imprisoned Forty Eight Hours In Submersible Taken Aboard Rescue Ships.

HARROWING EXPERIENCE IS RELATED Air Exhausted in Craft As Ship Stands By To Render Aid; Cruisers Make Sensational Dash To Scene.

New York, Sept. 3.—Four officers and twenty-four men, the crew of the United States submarine S-5 were safe today after submersion in their disabled vessel almost forty-eight hours off the Delaware capes.

A radio message received early today at the Brooklyn Navy yard said the merchant ship Atlanteus was towing the disabled undersea boat to the Delaware breakwater.

Washington, Sept. 3.—Another name has been added to the list of naval heroes and it is that of Lieut. Commander Charles M. Cook Jr., in command of the U. S. Submarine S-5 according to early and incomplete dispatches received by the navy department today, regarding the fate of the submarine which was submerged for more than 35 hours.

Although in a greatly weakened condition, Lieut. Commander Cook remained aboard the vessel during all the rescue work; a message received here stated and was the last man taken aboard the rescuing ship, the U. S. S. Atlanteus. His condition was reported to be serious, although he was responding to treatment.

The early dispatch received here stated:

"S-5 partially flooded. Crew and officers saved and now aboard U. S. S. Atlanteus bound for Delaware Breakwater. Submarine resting a little below surface at 60 degrees. Captain last man to leave vessel although in bad condition, recovering, men recovering."

No mention was made in the dispatch of the method of rescue, but officers in the navy department assume that rescue vessels had succeeded in lifting the submerged submarine, out of the water far enough to permit cutting a hole through her sides through which the crew and officers were taken.

Commander Cook is from Arkansas. Other officers detailed to the S-5 on August 1, were Lieut. J. G. Gresham; Ensign Bailey Longstaff, of Nebraska and Gunner Robert Holt of Indiana.

The accident to the S-5 occurred when she made a "crash dive" which caused her to be partially flooded, a later dispatch stated. Officers lacking complete information were at a loss to explain just how the ship had become flooded while making the dive.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 3.—Speeding at the terrific pace of nearly a mile a minute United States destroyers Preston and Breckinridge reached the submerged submarine S-5 shortly after 2 o'clock this morning. They made the run from the Hampton Roads naval base to the scene of the submarine accident, a distance of 115 miles in slightly more than 2 hours. It was said to be the speediest dash a United States naval unit had ever made in going to the assistance of a disabled ship. The two destroyers passed the battleship Ohio shortly after midnight, although the larger ship had left Lynhaven Roads an hour ahead of them. The Preston and Breckinridge are among the fastest vessels in the American navy.

In their speed trial after their launching they made 35 knots.

DIVERGENCE OF VIEWS AT COAL MEET DEVELOPS

Retailers Unanimous In Stand That Supply Below Needs.

PRODUCTION OVER PAR Plans Of Fuel Rationing Discussed Before Adjournment.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 3.—Wide divergence of views developed yesterday at the conference of coal operators, retail coal dealers, representatives of Ohio cities and of the interstate commerce commission, at the chamber of commerce here. Retailers were unanimous in the stand that the coal supply of the state available for domestic use was far below the needs of the people and that continued shipment of 4,000 cars of coal daily to northwest points as provided in the priority order of the interstate commerce commission, means that many cities will be far short of their fuel needs this winter.

On the other hand operators asserted that coal production in Ohio was never so satisfactory as now and that all legitimate needs can be taken care of if proper precautions are taken. Plans of fuel rationing were suggested, but the meeting adjourned late yesterday to meet again at 11 o'clock today without having agreed upon any solution of the situation.

Retailers were emphatic in their assertion that the "vacation" now in force among a large number of anthracite miners added largely to the peril of the situation. They also asserted that a large part of the coal designed to supply homes of the northwest with winter fuel was not reaching its destination, but was being diverted to industrial uses at Detroit and other lake ports, though the fact that the interstate commerce commission control of the coal ended when it reached the end of its journey.

Attending the meeting were representatives of coal operators of Ohio, retail coal dealers from Akron, Canton, Youngstown, Alliance, Warren and other northern Ohio cities, representatives of the chambers of commerce of these cities, traffic managers of railroads and representatives of the interstate commerce commission.

ATTENDANCE AT OHIO FAIR BREAKS RECORD OF FORMER YEARS

Over 90,000 Pass Through The Fair Gates In Columbus

Columbus, O., Sept. 3.—It was estimated today that over 90,000 persons visited the state fair yesterday. This is the greatest single day's attendance in the history of the Ohio fair.

It was midnight before the congestion of automobiles was cleared. Prediction was made by state fair officials that if increased attendance at next year's fair is as great as this year's was, over that of last year, a number of livestock and other exhibits will have to be refused positions on the grounds and that autos will have to be barred from the grounds after the noon hour.

Today's program includes a national casting tournament and a horse shoe pitching contest.

JAMES H. BARNETT PASSES AWAY AT HOME ON FRIDAY

James H. Barnett passed away at his home on the Upper Bellbrook pike at ten o'clock Friday morning from heart trouble. He had been in failing health for several months but was only confined to his bed for a week.

He was the son of John and Amelia Moody Barnett and was born June 1, 1847 at the old Barnett homestead on the lower Bellbrook pike. He was the last of eleven children to pass away. His death occurred on the first anniversary of the funeral of his brother Edward S. Barnett.

He was married March 23, 1874 to Martha Ellen Harper. His widow survives him with the following children: John T. of Xenia; Walter M. of Jamestown; Ernest O.; Merle M. James L. George Moody and Henry E., of Xenia and Clarence O., of Dayton.

The following children preceded him in death Benjamin H., Mary Amelia; Harry H. and Mrs. Elizabeth Barnett Lackey. Two grand children Louise Barnett and Martha Lackey survive.

He attended Ohio Wesleyan and Lebanon University and taught school at Fauber and McPherson schools before engaging in farming. The funeral will be held on Monday.

GIVEN 30 DAY TRIAL

New York, Sept. 3.—Mrs. Mary Immodina, of Brooklyn, was given 30 days by Supreme Court Justice Squibbs to win the love of her 15 year old daughter who has been living with her aunt and uncle for ten years. The child refused to go to her mother's home because she said her mother never spoke to her.

POLAND DEFIES REQUESTS OF THE ALLIES

HARDING'S STAND ON LEAGUE OF NATIONS BRINGS APPROVAL FROM G. O. P. SOURCES

Issue Will Be Pressed Harder In Coming Important Speeches Of Senator; Intensive Campaign Will Begin September 17.

Marion, Sept. 3.—In the week that has passed since Senator Harding made his international speech, advocating the junking of the league of nations and the revision of the Hague tribunal, the response from the country has been so pleasing to the Republican chieftains that from now on, it was indicated today the league issue would be pressed harder and harder.

In addition to the hundreds of congratulatory telegrams which have poured into Harding headquarters this week, the senator had on his desk today laudatory editorial comment from Republican newspapers from coast to coast. Directors of the senator's campaign are immensely pleased.

Senator Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania who led the irreconcilables to the treaty in the senate is a guest of Senator Harding today. He will spend several days here and is expected to furnish considerable ammunition for the next attack, which probably will come on Sept. 17 when Senator Harding will make a "constitutional address" to a group of foreign born citizens here.

September 17 also will mark the beginning of the Republican "intensive" campaign. On that date speakers in every state will make a concerted attack on Democratic policies.

In the interim, Senator Harding will make two important addresses.

RANKS OF STRIKING CARMEN IN EAST BEGIN TO WAVER

Nearly Hundred and Fifty Old Employees Return To Work

New York, Sept. 3.—The first break in the ranks of striking employees of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company came today when 146 motormen and conductors, all of whom had seen 15 years or more service returned to work.

Their action followed the promise of federal judge Julius Mayer that strikers who returned to work would not lose their "benefits, seniority or other privileges."

Judge Mayer's refusal to treat with the strike leaders and his efforts to drive them from the union's organization angered the employees who still remained out, the sixth day of the strike. Judge Mayer tempted the workers to come back on a basis of an eight percent increase.

Twenty Brooklyn surface lines were being operated today, although not on full schedule, while subway and elevated lines were running about half normal. Strike leaders declared the strike would go on.

WORLD WIDE LABOR UNREST APPEARS

Great Britain—Eight hundred and fifty thousand British coal miners will strike on September 25, throwing about 150,000 other workers in the coal fields into idleness.

Italy—Strikes general throughout northern Italy and at Milan the strikers have seized the factories.

Spain—Strikes general throughout Catalonia.

Germany—Strike in the Ruhr district and upper Silesia.

United States—Nearly 125,000 miners in anthracite coal fields on strike; 12,000 street railway employees on strike in Brooklyn; 3,000 longshoremen at New York vote to strike in protest against England's Irish policy.

"SLUSH FUND" PROBE DISCONTINUED TILL EARLY NEXT WEEK

Meeting Adjourned Without Hearing Moore Testify

Chicago, Sept. 3.—Members of the senate "slush fund" sub-committee left Chicago today following adjournment until next Tuesday without hearing Edmund H. Moore, Governor Cox's personal emissary.

Moore appeared before the committee yesterday but when it was learned his testimony would concern only leads to evidence of a $15,000,000 Republican campaign fund, the committee adjourned until Tuesday without further questioning.

Before adjournment the committee in executive session issued subpoenas for the following persons:

Harry M. Blair, Marion, Ohio, "financial wizard" of the Republican campaign.

Mrs. Jacob Bauer, Chicago, vice chairman Illinois ways and means committee.

Fred A. Miller, chairman of the Ohio Republican ways and means committee.

Warren S. Dickel, chairman Missouri Republican ways and means committee.

H. G. Garrett, Winchester, chairman Kentucky Republican ways and means committee.

W. K. Woodford and Dudley S. Blossom, Cleveland, Republicans.

The Cleveland men are to be questioned on Democratic charges that Cleveland was assessed a campaign quota independent of that levied against the state.

THREE THOUSAND DOCK WORKERS ON PROTEST WALKOUT

Demand Release Of MacSwiney, Mayor Of Cork.

New York, Sept. 3.—Three thousand dock workers employed at Brooklyn piers refused to do further work today on British vessels until Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork is released from Brixton jail. Archbishop Mannix allowed to visit Ireland and the British troops are withdrawn from Erin.

The dock workers, following a mass meeting, showed telegrams claiming that similar action had been pledged by Irish sympathizers and dock workers at Galveston, New Orleans, Newport News, and Philadelphia, while at Boston an anti-British strike already was under way.

The International Longshoremen's Union repudiated the action of its members who quit their posts on New York piers several days ago when British ships were being loaded. International officers said such strikes violated working agreements.

COX DUE IN LANSING FRIDAY AFTERNOON FOR INITIAL SPEECH

Governor On First Leg Of 7,000 Mile Journey.

En Route With Governor Cox, Toledo, O., Sept. 3.—Refreshed by a good night's sleep, Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, arrived here early this morning on a special train from Columbus, Ohio, and after taking on board a delegation of Michigan Democrats, left for Lansing, Mich., where this afternoon he is scheduled to make the first set speech of his "swing around the circle," which will occupy more than a month and involve a journey of nearly 7,000 miles.

The Democratic candidate scheduled to make three minor addresses before reaching Lansing, two or five minutes each from the rear platform at Manchester and Tecumseh, Mich., and another of twenty-five or thirty minutes at Jackson, Mich. The original schedule called for twelve speeches in Michigan, but it was thought likely that several of these would be vetoed as the governor's advisers are urging him not wear himself out at the very beginning of the long trip.

AMERICAN WARSHIPS IN PORT AT DANZIG

Berlin, Sept. 3.—The American armored cruiser Pittsburgh arrived at Danzig, to which port it was ordered for the protection of Americans on Tuesday, according to advices from Danzig today. An American destroyer, and the Collier Marco arrived at Danzig today, the advices say.

ROBBED WHILE HE SLEPT

Cleveland, Sept. 3.—Joseph Z. Pope, patron of a downtown hotel, reported the disappearance of a diamond ring valued at $1,000 and $500 in cash to police today. He says the valuables were taken from his clothing while he slept.

DANIELS INSPECTS ALASKAN COAL MINES

While on his recent tour of inspection through Alaska, Secretary of Navy Josephus Daniels donned a pair of overalls and jumper and went through the naval coal mines at Sitka, Alaska. The secretary is shown on the right with one of the miners, attired in his new outfit.

SENATOR HARDING TELLS FARMERS OF INTEREST IN AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRY

LITHUANIA APPEALS TO FRANCE TO STOP POLISH ADVANCE

Country Alarmed Over Activities Of Poland It Is Reported

Paris, Sept. 3.—Lithuania was reported today to have appealed to France to stop the advance of the Polish army into Lithuanian territory. The Polish army, on the Lithuanian frontier north of Suwalki, has advanced twenty miles, according to official advices to the foreign office. The Lithuanians are said to be greatly alarmed over the situation.

"The Poles have learned nothing from their experience with the Russians and apparently are attempting a new military adventure against Lithuania," said the Paris Midi today.

NAMES NOT CERTIFIED DECLARES CHIEF OF BOARD OF ELECTIONS

Omission Of Names From Ballot May Be Investigated.

As the result of the non-appearance of the names of Walter S. Page and Judge James I. Allread, candidates for appellate judge in this district, on the primary ballots in this county, an investigation of the cause may be inaugurated by Secretary of State Harvey C. Smith, it is now announced, from Columbus.

Whether local election officials were to blame or whether the mistake occurred in the office of the Secretary of State has not been determined and blame for the omission of the names has not been placed by the state officials as yet.

As a result of the omission of the names of the two candidates, the 2-100 Republicans living in Greene county were deprived of the right to vote for their choice in the race for appellate judgeship and information from Columbus says that Republicans in the county are up in arms over the matter. This however, is not considered true, as very little talk of the omission has been heard here and the vote in this county would not have changed the status of the candidates.

J. M. Fletcher, chief of the Greene county board of elections said Friday that the reason the names of Page and Allread were left off the local ballots is because their names were not certified to the board here from the Secretary of state's office.

PETITIONS STILL REMAIN UNSIGNED

Promised petitions asking for a recall of either all or certain city commissioners and of the city manager, were not put in circulation Friday. It is whispered now that the delay in getting the petitions out, three weeks past the date, may psychologically react against the success of them once they are put in circulation.

MACSWINEY WEAKER

London, Sept. 3.—Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, who is on a hunger strike took a turn for the worse this morning. It was announced at Brixton jail that he was considerably weaker.

VOLUME OF BUSINESS OF DAYTON STREET RAILWAY DECREASES

Dayton, O., Sept. 3.—That the volume of passengers carried by Dayton street cars has decreased since the establishment of higher fares, is the statement made by officials of the companies.

Henry Gebhart, general manager of the Oakwood line, says that this decrease with his company has amounted to 8 to 10 per cent. He does not attribute all of the decrease to the higher fare, holding that many people are walking because of the nice weather and that there are many out of work at the present time.

William L. Smith, general manager of the Dayton street Railway Company, adds that the fact that many people are on their vacations now, is another cause for the decrease in street car travel.

WOMEN APPRAISERS SELECTED IN SUIT

Columbus, O., Sept. 3.—Women appraisers have been selected in a partition suit here.

It is believed the honor of being the first woman to act in the matter of this kind here falls upon Mrs. J. H. Bachelor, Mrs. J. J. Greene and Miss Barbara Eichner. They have been asked by Franklin county officials to value a double brick house involved in the suit of Grace F. Gianflora against Louise Cianflora and others.

WILL FIGHT RED FORCES TO THE FINISH, BELIEF

Polish Diplomats Cast International Diplomacy Aside.

TO PLAY LONE HAND

Colby Declares Note To U. S. "Satisfactory Discussion."

Washington, Sept. 3.—Poland casting international diplomacy aside, has decided to fight the forces of soviet Russia to a finish, even though she must make the fight alone, according to the interpretation of officials here today upon the Polish note made public yesterday.

Poland in her note ignored all the requests and suggestions made by Secretary of State Colby and while officials refused to make any comment, the inference was plain that this government will not strain itself to aid Poland.

Secretary Colby, in his note to Poland after stating that the first Polish invasion of Russia helped the Bolshevik cause, suggested that Poland make a formal declaration of its intention to retain from territorial aggressions in Russia, that it announce its war efforts were not against a united Russia, and that it remain within the ethnographic boundaries fixed by the peace conference.

The Polish government in its reply ignores these requests so far as specific and direct reply is concerned, and calls attention to the fact that Poland is playing a lone hand and that from a military standpoint she must rely upon her own strength and be governed by military necessities.

"The most sincere desire to live on peaceful terms with her eastern neighbors," is expressed by Poland, and this is the closest approach in the note to an answer to the American suggestions.

Secretary Colby's only comment on the Polish reply was that "it is a very satisfactory discussion of the matter."

CROIX-DE-GUERRE HOLDER APPLIES FOR VICTORY MEDAL

Application to secure a Victory Medal, being awarded to ex soldiers, for a Croix de Guerre man, was made to the officers accepting applications at the Chamber of Commerce Friday.

Lem Smith colored soldier receiving treatment for injuries received in the service at Washington Hospital was the first applicant to be received here who has been awarded the French decoration for bravery.

The famous French war medal was awarded the young colored soldier for bravery in action in the Champagne Sector, when in company with another soldier, he succeeded in effecting the rescue of a French officer, who had been captured by a German patrol of five.

Private Smith was a member of Co. G, 372 infantry an outfit that acquitted itself nobly in the service overseas. The ribbon of his Victory Medal for which he made application Friday morning, will be decorated with three clasps, showing that he served in Alsace Lorraine, Meuse Argonne and Champagne.

It was a peculiar coincidence that two soldiers whose applications for Victory Medals were accepted by the officers Thursday, were in the same outfit overseas and entitled to the same battle clasps on the medal ribbon. They are Cassius C. Jones and Guy R. Garman, who served in the 166th infantry. Their battle clasps will be five in number for the Champagne Marne, Aisne Marne, St. Mihiel and Meuse Argonne battles and the defensive section of the First Army Area.

Saturday will be the last day the officers will remain here. Captain Nihoff of the army recruiting station at Cincinnati and Miss A. M. Lawler army field clerk, who have had charge of accepting the applications of soldiers for the medals here will leave Saturday and next week will be in Wilmington. Soldiers have their last opportunity to make application for the medals Saturday.

LORD MAYOR STILL LIVING BUT DEATH NEAR IS BELIEF

London, Sept. 3.—Terence MacSwiney, hunger striking lord mayor of Cork, still lives, but the end may come at any time. At the lord mayor's request his wife and two sisters were present this morning in Brixton jail infirmary when a special mass was celebrated.

"This may be the last devotional service we will all attend together," said Mrs. MacSwiney, the wife.

POLICE CAPTAIN IS SHOT BY MEMBER OF FORCE IN SEARCH

Hunt For Burglars Results In Fatality In Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 2.—Police captain Edward B. Connelly of Cleveland Heights, was shot early this morning by one of his patrolmen, and died in Mount Sinai hospital, where he lay die. The two were engaged in a burglar hunt.

Patrolman Ralph W. Newness, who led the shooting, said that he fired several shots at his chief, mistaking him for the burglar they were hunting.

Early this morning Newness saw a figure approaching. A command to halt was unheeded and then Newness fired twice. The figure fell and Newness then recognized the chief. As an ambulance was summoned the captain gasped: "It was all a mistake."

The thieves escaped with toilet articles, cigars and other merchandise worth several hundred dollars.

REUNION OF JOHNS HELD IN INDIANA

Eaton, Ind., Sept. 2.—Of all the Johns in these parts, the "lyin'est" gets the prize. The biggest liar—John by name—was selected from several hundred Johns who attended the twelfth annual reunion of Johns from Indiana and other States here the other day. The "lyin'est" John's other name was not divulged. There were prizes also for the tallest, shortest, thinnest, fattest, youngest, oldest, handsomest, homeliest, danciest and fiddliest. John Skinner, ninety-three of Clarksburg, W. Va. danced several new steps. Meeting in the village square the assembled Johns headed by a band, marched to a park a mile away. Three women Johns were among the rest.

GROESBECK WINNER OF NOMINATION FOR MICHIGAN GOVERNOR

All Uncertainty Removed As Returns Come In

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 2.—As returns come in from Tuesday's primaries all uncertainty is removed as to the nomination by the Republicans of Attorney General Alexander J. Groesbeck for the governorship of Michigan. The figures today stood: Groesbeck 86,688; Campbell 62,037 and Mott 50,794.

The most prominent of Michigan congressmen who met defeat were Rep. Currie and Rep. P. H. Kelly. One woman was nominated for the state senate, Mrs. Eva M. Hamilton of Grand Rapids.

SOCIETY OF "MARYS" NOW FORMED

Noblesville, Ind., Sept. 2.—Do you answer to the name of Mary? Yes? Well, you should have been along with a couple of thousand or so other Marys who attended the annual meeting of the Marys of the Nation, Old Marys, young Marys, big ones and little ones fat and lean red-headed and otherwise—they were here. And "a good time was had by all." Miss Mary Lacey president and Mrs. Mary Neal Conkle, secretary prepared the programme for the meeting and although they didn't send out cards with kind regards to every Mary in the land each and every one answering to that moniker was invited. The organization was formed three years ago and it has grown steadily until some 2,000 odd Marys belong.

WANT HOMES FOR ORPHANS IN GREENE COUNTY RESIDENCES

Do you want to give a bright-eyed youngster a home?

Harry C. Eisnagle, field worker for the children's welfare department of the State Board of Charities, was in this city Friday in an attempt to find homes for some of the state wards.

The state has in its charge many homeless youngsters ranging in all ages who would more than appreciate a good home, something they have perhaps never known. The welfare department is now attempting to find good locations for these orphans where they would be taken care of properly and given the home advantages that they need and lack.

Families wishing to adopt or take and care for one or more of these children can make application through Probate Judge J. Carl Marshall, according to Mr. Eisnagle. The initial agreement necessary is only a promise on the part of the family to receive a child into their home on trial. They must promise further that the child shall be sent to school, shall attend necessary medical or surgical attention, shall eat at the table with the family and in every way shall be given the same social advantages that a child of their own would receive.

Unless the child is adopted the family shall recognize the Board of State Charities as the legal guardian until the child reaches majority, and reports shall be submitted showing the number of days the child has attended school and Sunday school. The family must further agree not to transfer the child to another family without the written consent from the State board and to notify the board of any change in address. This agreement shall be signed by the husband and wife.

Many of the youngsters are big boys, capable and willing to work, and their training under state care has prepared them to enter any home.

"MAKING THE SALE" SUBJECT OF ADDRESS AT TEACHERS' MEET

Thursday was a day full of interesting features at the Greene County Teachers' Institute.

Mr. Marsh delivered the last one of his series of addresses on salesmanship, taking for his subject "Making the Sale." Four points were discussed under this head: 1.—Getting attention. 2.—Creating interest. 3.—Creating a desire for knowledge. 4.—Action. "Good habit." Marsh reviewed the laws of habit as given by the psychologist, Dr. James. While the speaker emphasized the thought of the satisfaction that the pupil derives from the acquiring of knowledge, he said he has no patience with the notion that children must do nothing but that which they wish to do.

At the close of Mr. Marsh's address the secretary read a letter from Supr. C. A. Waltz, of the Xenia Schools, president elect of the Teachers' Association. The letter was in part as follows:

"Dear Miss Dillencourt,

Your letter announcing that I had been elected President of the Association is at hand. I wish to take this means of thanking the teachers for the great honor they have conferred upon me and to assure that I shall do all within my power to discharge my duties in a manner that will make for the best educational interests of Greene County.

Very truly yours,

C. A. Waltz."

Herbert E. Martin, Professor of Philosophy in Des Moines, Iowa, gave a splendid address on Democracy in Education. Mr. Martin said democracy is not necessarily a majority rule, it is a spiritual matter. The fact that woman has been given the right of suffrage is not a great victory because she can vote but because it gives her the opportunity of contributing her utmost to the ideals of the community.

"Democracy," he said, necessitates education. Intelligence is not a necessity ignorance will suffice. Where the people do not count—in a despotism. But in a democracy, intelligence is a sine qua non. What you would put into the nation, you must put into the schools."

Mrs. Lacy of Yellow Springs announced a convention to be held in Xenia Sept. 17, where women will be instructed in matters pertaining to voting urging the women to attend.

At the afternoon session Dr. Grube who has been appointed both as city and county health commissioner, came before the teachers in a short talk, asking co-operation of the teachers in making Greene County a model health county. It was stated that Dr. P. R. Madden will present to each school a chart for eye-tests.

Mr. T. Howard Winters of the State Educational Department and a representative of the extension work of Miami University gave brief talks.

Mr. H. M. Little of Yellow Springs and Miss Louise Bone of Xenia (two rendered a flute and clarinet duet accompanied on the piano by Miss Stroup. This was followed by a vocal solo by Miss Stroup accompanied on the piano by Miss Bone and the flute by Mr. Little.

Miss Halie Q. Brown of Wilberforce delighted the audience with several readings in her inimitable style. Mrs. Clark of Wilberforce played an accompaniment to some of the readings.

The last address of the day was given by Mr. Martin on "Some Aspects of the Teaching Function."

Mr. Martin spoke of Francis Bacon's idea of mankind as being born in a cave—our local limitations. The function of education is to lift our selves out of the cave. He also quoted from Plato's Republic "Justice is finding out what each soul is fitted for and making it possible for him to achieve that end." The cave man comes out of his cave and here he goes back to help his friends to come out of the cave."

The devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Uhl of the Lutheran church of this city.

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Bradford, were held at the late home on North Monroe street Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. The services were in charge of Rev. D. D. Dods assisted by Rev. Albert Read. Interment was made in Woodland cemetery, the pallbearers being John Van Eaton, Sr., John Van Eaton, Jr., Herman Eavey, Charles Read, W. R. Torrence and Charles Irwin.

George W. Hanley, who was associated with the American City Bureau during its organization campaign of the Chamber of Commerce here last fall, and Mrs. Hanley, stepped off in Xenia Wednesday while motorists through and were guests of L. C. Tinsley, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Hanley is secretary of the American Association, welfare organization of the American Rolling Mills at Middletown.

VETERAN CHAPLAIN DEAD.

Elyria, O., Sept. 2.—Rev. J. T. Hoak, 76, civil war chaplain and for 33 years in the Methodist ministry in this section, died here following an operation.

CONDUCTS SERVICE AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH WEDNESDAY

Arriving at the Presbyterian church just as the service was about to open Wednesday evening, the Rev. Samuel Dunn Bartle, (recently discharged from the United States army with the rank of major, and motorist to Norton Va., was invited to take charge of the service. He consented and gave a most interesting talk dealing largely with his army experiences.

The Rev. Bartle explained to the congregation that he was motorist through with his son to Norton, where he is to take charge of a Presbyterian church to which he was called. Passing the Presbyterian church he noticed the edifice lighted for services and told his son he would enter and assist in the service. He wore his uniform and as he entered the church he attracted the attention of several persons, who greeted him. He explained that he was just past, that he was a Presbyterian minister, and wished to assist in the service. It was explained to the visitor that the church had just lost its pastor and he was invited to enter the pulpit and take the minister's place.

The visiting clergyman remained in Xenia over night, continuing on his journey with his son. Thursday morning.

Young Man:

If you don't believe wearing the best clothes pays, just dress up slipshod and go strike some stranger for a job. You'll never even get to see him, probably, and if you do you'll get a sure TURN DOWN.

The glad hand goes out to only those who appear well. It is a matter of BUSINESS to wear good clothes. Look at your OLD ONES, then come look at our NEW ONES. You will buy.

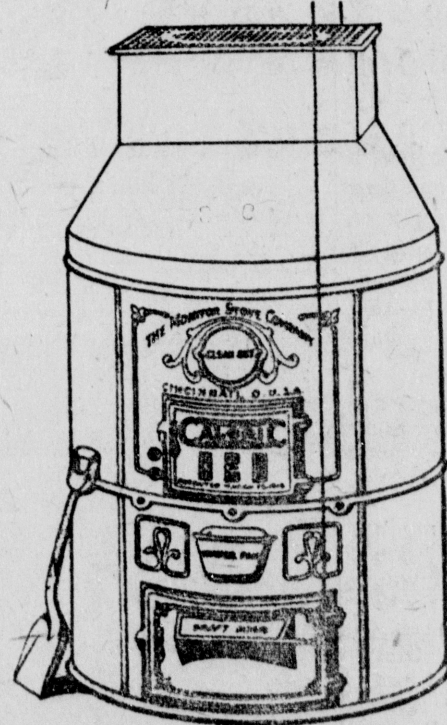

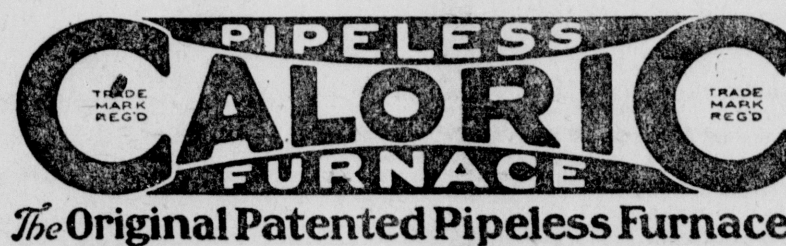

Wear our good "Nifty" clothes.

HOW DELIGHTFUL THE DIFFERENT SEASONS, AS EACH COMES IN TURN.

In the whirligig of passing time we are coming to another change of temperature, to a change in the weather—entering upon the season we call Fall or Autumn. When we meditate upon them, how wonderful the seasons—Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter—so varied in temperature—so delightful, each in its turn.

"Oh, how can you say that of Winter," exclaims the octogenarian—"it chills me to even hear the word." But think of the Minneapolis youth, full blooded and robust, building his snow-house and "ice-palace" in great glee, and bragging of the splendid weather.

The seasons—how delightful the changes in temperature. How monotonous would life be if all one long summer, or if all one long winter. No, thank you, no Russia or Arizona weather, as a steady diet, for me.

It is a good thing that the wheel of Providence is always in motion, so that the spoke that is now uppermost will ere long be under—hence with our season of Depression we may remember that Joy is on its way to us.

And then, we of this country have so much leeway that no pent up Utica confines us, for the whole boundless continent is ours. We can go to the White Mountains in summer, or to California or Florida in winter. We are not like the folks in some of the little countries over there, in danger of falling off the edge.

The four quarters of the year, Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter are determined astronomically by the apparent movements of the sun, (the real movements of the earth.) The passage of the sun across the equator brings on days of greater or shorter length. We are now just past the autumnal equinox of the northern hemisphere (about September 23d.) and the sun is just setting at the north pole and just rising at the south. In the United States the seasons begin with the months succeeding the sun's crossing the equator, so our autumn season has just commenced.

Most persons have their "favorite season" of the year. With some autumn is considered the choice part, and many know of most delightful days of nutting or hunting. How anxiously the Nimrods await the "open season" when they may pursue the bunnies or the cotton tails with fire in their eyes. To them autumn means the pleasure of long tramps with a gun on the shoulder.

So it is that the different seasons give a variety of climate that should please us all. Variety is the very spice of life, the opposite of monotonous. How Nature delights and interests us at the different seasons. Variety alone gives joy, the sweetest meats soon cloy.

ODD FACTS ABOUT NATIONAL ELECTIONS.

No state is strictly "pivotal." But in last 16 elections the successful candidate has carried Indiana except 1876 and 1916; Illinois except 1884 and 1916; N. Y. except 1856, 1868, 1876 and 1916; Ohio except 1856, 1876, 1884 and 1892; Wis. except 1856, 1884, 1892 and 1916. In last seven elections N. J. has been with winner except 1916; in all last six N. H. and N. D. have been with winner; in all last five Kans. and Utah. Vermont is only state having unbroken Republican record, but Iowa, Pa. and R. I. went other way only in 1912.

Eleven states of "Solid South"—Ala., Ark., Fla., Ga., La., Miss., N. C., S. C., Tenn., Tex. and Va.—always vote Democratic, and this gives that party 126 electoral votes to start on. Ky., Md., and Mo. have gone Democratic nine times out of 10 and they add 39 electoral votes.

Cleveland is the only president who "came back" after intervening period and after being defeated. Strange coincidence; three presidents out of 27 died July 4—Jefferson, John Adams and Monroe. Roosevelt was youngest president—42; John Adams lived to greatest age—90. No Democratic president has died in office. All three presidents who were assassinated were Republicans—Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley. Average age of presidents when they took office was 55; average at death 70—the Biblical standard. W. H. Harrison was oldest man chosen president—68—and his service was shortest—a month.

Representation is very uneven under electoral system. N. Y. has as much population as 19 smaller states but has only 45 electoral votes, against 80 for the others. District of Columbia has as much population as Wyo. and Del., but it has no representation at all, while they have six men in congress and six electoral votes.

A few votes may decide an election. In 1884 Cleveland carried N. Y. by only 1149 votes; a change of less than 600 votes would have given Blaine the state and presidency. Change of 26 votes in Md. in 1904 and 29 votes in N. H. in 1916 would have made state Rep. Change of 232 in Calif. in 1912 would have made state Dem.; change of 40 in 1880 and change of 1887 in 1916 would have made it Rep. Majority does not necessarily rule; 12 times out of total of 33 a president has been elected by minority of popular vote—J. Q. Adams, Polk, Taylor, Buchanan, Lincoln (1860), Hayes, Garfield, Cleveland (1884 and 1892), B. Harrison, and Wilson (1912 and 1916).

"HIS OR HER."

It will not be long before the rhetoric of the campaign and of the campaign documents will be bristling with the "his or her" phraseology. For in this matter the English language is rather defective, and no true politician, gunning for the woman vote, would depend on the purely masculine pronoun to include all his audience, even if a long range of precedents would sustain him in making the masculine word carry the sense of a universal gender. Years ago some experimenters suggested that in place of the cumbersome "his or her" phrase that the word "thou" should be used. So if a stump speaker were referring to the rights of any citizen to his or her participation in public campaigns or to his or her rights to share in public offices, the "his or her" section of the sentence would be replaced by "thou." This naturally uncouth suggestion met with such a chilly reception on the part of those who had their own view as to how the male and female of the species might be referred to a little more elegantly in public utterances that it died an early death. It is unlikely that any one will have the boldness to advocate the use of "thou" during the present campaign, so if it is felt that courtesy calls for laying the flattering unction of distinction in gender to the female soul every time they are inclusively referred to, it looks as if the old "his or her" style will have to be followed in reference to man and woman viewed as political entities.

Betty K, the three-year-old trotter owned by R. S. Kingsbury of this city and driven by "Spec" Erskine, won second money in the Governor's Purse of $2,000 and the Governor's cup race, the three-year-old event of the Ohio State Fair, Thursday.

Signal Peter, the trotter owned by Wilbur Myers of Springfield, and driven by Harry Stokes of that city, won the event taking the two out of three heats necessary. In the absence of Governor Cox, Harry Devereaux of Cleveland, president of the Grand Circuit presented the cup to Stokes who received it for Mr. Myers.

It was Stokes' third victory of the week, Signal Boy and Wattage having won for him, and it was the fourth time the Governor's Cup has gone to Springfield. "Bill" Albin also owned by Wilbur Myers won third money in the Cup race and J. L. Worthing, another Springfield owned trotter won fourth money.

Leonteen, the gray mare driven by Grover Brinkels, of this city, was winner of the first division of the 2:17 pace, taking two out of three heats, the number of entries necessitating the race being divided into sections.

NERVES STEADY AS EIGHT DAY CLOCK

Never knew what a full night's rest was, rolling and tossing from one side of the bed to the other. Now she sleeps sound and awakes feeling refreshed, since taking Dreco.

"I used to dread going to bed because it meant fitful sleep, bad dreams and rising next morning more tired than the night before," said Mrs. Stella Guess of 6 Brown Ave., Athens, Ohio.

"My stomach gave me much distress by filling up with gas after meals and nausea. I was constipated daily; had no appetite, and had aching pains in my back right over my kidneys. Dizzy spells often attacked me; I had a bitter taste in my mouth and my tongue was coated most all the time.

"Dreco has proven to be a wonderful remedy for such troubles as I had, for I'm feeling better than in many a day. I strongly recommend Dreco as a tonic for women."

Dreco is made from the juices of twelve different herbs, roots, barks and leaves, which act directly on the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder and the blood, and tends to relieve constipation, rheumatism, catarrh, biliousness, dizzy spells, heart fluttering, gas on the stomach and other troubles.

All druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced in

THE RELEASE.

When Old Hiram Rumble was planted, I sighed like a son of a gun, although I was rather enchanted to know that his troubles were done. Some symptoms of grief are expected, when neighbors or friends pass away; we have to look sad and dejected, and give our emotions some play. When old Hiram Rumble was living, he cornered all anguish and pain; each hour in his passing was giving some joint an additional strain. His nights were lead-footed and sleepless, his days had the semblance of years; and if he was dry-eyed and weepless, 'twas because he had run out of tears. But now all his torture is ended, he sleeps in his tomb like a child; then why should our garments be rended, and why should our wailings be wild. Above him the blue grass is seeded, above him the daisies have grown; the heat of the summer's unheeded, the cold of the winter's unknown. Rheumatics may torture and rack us, and put all our lives out of tune, all manners of ills may attack us, but Hiram is strictly immune. And so I knew little of sorrow when over his casket I stood; I doubt if old Hiram would borrow one hour of this life if he could.

STERRETT'S ALFALFA COMPOUND The Best TONIC on Earth. Casstown, Ohio, Nov. 14, 1919. My Dear Colonel Sterrett:

I am not in the habit of writing testimonials, but I must tell you what your Alfalfa Tonic has done for me. I have been more or less afflicted with stomach trouble for years and have tried many remedies recommended for that ailment, but it was not until I purchased a bottle of your Compound that I obtained a real benefit. I tried only one treatment and have not been troubled with the disorder since. I now can eat everything without fear of stomach derangement, am now in better health than I have been for years, sleep well and have stronger nerves. I think you deserve the thanks of the people for putting on the general market your great discovery of the curative properties of Alfalfa, which has only to be tried to convince the most skeptical of its efficacy.

The hats we sell are made of the finest materials, and by careful hand-processes.

They are made by Mallory, who has been making fine hats ever since 1823.

Mallory has always made reasonably priced hats, which is very fortunate for you, because it means that, even with the tremendously increased cost of materials and labor, Mallory Hats today represent greater value than ever.

You will be wiser, this Fall, to get a Mallory than to try to save money by buying a cheap hat.

Every man knows how these things have gone up. It is because Mallory has not skimped on them that Mallory Hats are worth so much more this Fall than cheap hats made of inferior materials.

EAST END NEWS

The "Thomas H. Jackson" Republican Club will meet next Thursday evening, September 9th, at the First A. M. E. Church for the purpose of enrolling members and outlining work for the coming campaign. The club will co-operate with the Republican Executive Committee of the county for the Republican ticket and will take an active part in the local politics. The colored voters are urged to turn out at this meeting. Bishop Jones Dean Jones, Dr. T. H. Jackson, Rev. W. C. Allen, Dr. Hill, Dr. Nichols and others will address the meeting. Aligned clubs have been formed in Jamestown, Cedarville, Yellow Springs and Wilberforce which will be formed into a county organization for a better understanding and more effective co-operation.

Miss Garretta E. Lane has returned from four weeks visit in Cleveland and Akron.

Mrs. George Gaines, East Market street still continues ill. She has to keep to her bed most of the time.

Cor. Columbus and Market streets had a narrow escape from being seriously hurt while on a visit in Chicago. On alighting from a street car he was thrown violently to the ground receiving bruises about the head and face and a badly sprained hand.

Miss Beulah Underwood's Sunday School Class motored through to Cedarville to attend the debate given there at the Baptist church Wednesday evening. They were chaperoned by Miss Underwood and Mrs. B. H. Booth.

Mrs. Mattie Wigginton, East Market street is suffering from a badly bruised finger caused by being caught between boards when caring for their hog.

The little Misses Geneva and Juanita Robinson are visiting their father and other relatives in Dayton.

Jas. H. Maxwell, Pastor, Sunday school 9:30 a. m. Mrs. Geo W. Maxwell Supt. 10:30 a. m. Preaching, by the pastor 7:30 p. m. Preaching. All are cordially invited. We thank Pres. J. A. Gregg of Wilberforce University; Dean, Geo. F. Woodson; and Prof. Hill of Payne Theological Seminary; Rev. W. T. Maxwell of Lebanon Ohio; and Supt. Wm. Berry of the C. N. I. Department of Wilberforce University and all others who help in any way to make our Rally on Sunday, Aug. 29 a success. At which time we raised ($623.00) and twenty three dollars more than paying off our mortgage indebtedness. The mortgage will be burned on Thursday night September 9th in the church at which time a banquet will be served at 50 cents a plate. Come and rejoice with us.

Is It Yours

PRINCE DE BEAUHARNAIS
September 3, 1781.

Eugene de Beauharnais, famous because he was the stepson of Napoleon, was born in Paris in 1781. His father had been born on the island of Martinique and had served in our American Revolution. The young man grew up in Paris and served in the army under Napoleon.

He became a favorite with the great general, and it is said that the romance of Napoleon and the Empress Josephine was due to him—for he took his superior home to meet his mother, who had been a widow for two years, and Napoleon at once fell madly in love with her.

Eugene served under Napoleon in Italy and Egypt and when he was wounded, Napoleon himself brought him home to his mother, Josephine and his sister Hortense. Napoleon afterwards married him to a Bavarian princess and set him over Italy as ruler.

In spite of the estrangement between Napoleon and the Empress Josephine, Eugene continued to be devoted to Napoleon. He risked his life again and again fighting for him and never left him during the disastrous retreat from Russia. After Napoleon's downfall, Beauharnais escaped to Munich where he lived quietly in retirement. He died in 1824, leaving 5 children.

"Soon after my husband's death 9 years ago I was taken with typhoid fever. Since then have suffered from stomach and liver trouble and constipation. I have doctored a great deal without benefit. Since taking May's Wonderful Remedy three months ago my bowels have moved regularly and I am feeling well again. I am now a happy woman." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One use will convince or money refunded.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

Look Young! Bring Back Its Natural Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF HIGH SCHOOL LETTER MEN MEETS

Big things are planned by the Central High School "X" Association, organization of Alumni letter men of the local school formed this summer, which will hold an important meeting at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening.

Chief in the projects of President James D. Adair, elected at the initial organization meeting of the Association some time ago, is a big banquet opening the football season, and a general meeting at which plans will be formulated to assist the school football team through this season. An election of permanent officers will also be held at the banquet.

The fact that other matters of importance relative to the athletics of the local high school during the coming school term will also be taken up, is promised by President Adair. With the rearrangement of study period for the high school this year, athletics, it is felt by the "X" Association members, will be in a bad way, and the organization will find its initial work in tidying over the school during this crisis before the new building is erected and athletics can get back on a normal basis.

The "X" Association was first inaugurated last winter by Dr. C. H. Densler, one of the foremost football and basketball players the school ever had and later an Ohio man, and James T. Savage, another star product of the famous eleven of 1911. Any alumnus of Central High School who has won a school letter in any branch of high school athletics is eligible to membership in the Association, which has for its motto, the purpose of furthering athletics at the local school and in giving the teams put out moral and physical support.

The meeting Friday night will be the first active step in the plan of the organization. Later the banquet is expected to assist in crystallizing efforts of the Association.

BOYS THROW MISSILE STRIKE MAN; COURT

Arthur Gallagher, Lawrence Jordan, David Wead and Lyman Thompson, were brought into Police Headquarters Friday on charges of William Rogers, colored, that he had been struck with a missile thrown by the boys from the top of the Central High School building.

The four youths claimed that they had ventured on top of the building for the fun of it, and finding a glass insulator, had thrown it from the top of the building, with no intention of striking anyone. The insulator struck Rogers on the head but not seriously injuring him.

HENRY FORD VISITS SPRINGFIELD ON INSPECTION TOUR

Springfield, O., Sep. 3.—Our purchase of the line is not only to get coal for our factories, but to make a good railroad out of the D. T. & I. that will be a common carrier for the people," said Henry Ford in Springfield Thursday, following a tour of inspection with his Edsel and 22 other officials of the D. T. & I. railroad which he recently purchased. The Fords and their party came to Springfield on a special train of four cars, leaving Detroit at eight o'clock Thursday morning and arriving in Springfield at 7:15 Thursday evening. After dinner at the Hotel Shawnee, and an inspection trip of the city and the road shops, the party left for Ironton, the terminus of the line.

"RUBBISH COURT" KEPT CITY CLEAN

Denver, Sept. 2.—Mandates of Denver's "rubbish court" must be obeyed, according to A. E. Medaris, chief in the Municipal Inspection Department.

Medaris appeared in police court against Charles Kangari, who was fined for not cleaning certain premises as ordered by the "rubbish court." The "rubbish court" was established in an effort to maintain cleanliness in alleys and around back doors. Persons guilty of neglect in this regard are warned upon first offense by "officers" of the "rubbish court" and haled before police court if the neglect continues.

PESKY BED BUGS

(Pesky Devils Quietus) P. D. Q. is a new chemical that puts the everlasting to the Pesky bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants and cockroaches—impossible for the pesky devils to exist where P. D. Q. is used. Recommendations of Hotels, Hospitals, Railroad Companies and other public institutions are a guarantee to the public that the safest, quickest and most economical way of ridding the pesky insects is by the use of P. D. Q. as this chemical kills the eggs as well as the live ones, and will not injure the clothing.

A 35c package makes a full quart enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas or cockroaches, and also contains a patent sprout to get the egg nests in the hard to get-at-places, and saves juice.

Special Hospital also $2.50 makes five gallons—contains three sprouts—supplied by druggists or sent prepaid upon receipt of price, either size, by the Owl Chemical Co., Terre Haute, Ind.—never peddled.

Sold by Sayre & Hemphill, D. D. Jones and other leading druggists.

COX TELLS FARMERS TIME HAS COME FOR REPRESENTATION

Columbus, O., Sept. 2.—"The time has come when some hardheaded farmer representing the agricultural interests of the country should have his feet under the table when government policies are being decided," declared Gov. James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, in an address here today before members of the national board of farm organizations.

"Dirt farmers," the governor said, should be represented on the federal reserve board, the tariff commission and the interstate commerce commission and a dirt farmer should be secretary of agriculture.

"You gentlemen don't know anything about the millinery business," he continued, "and I don't believe there is a man on the interstate commerce commission who knows much about farming."

Asserting that no group in America contributed more to interstate commerce than the farmers, the governor argued that in such problems as the fixing of rates for carrying agricultural commodities, and supplying cars for the movement of crops, no one but a practical farmer was in a position to understand the real needs of the farmers. Much the same line of argument he said, applies to the tariff commission.

"Lack of proper supervision of cold storage has caused some city people to look unjustly upon the farmer as a profiteer," the governor said and pledged himself, if elected president, to see that federal laws were passed preventing cold storage operators from interrupting the proper working of the law of supply and demand.

Speaking of the federal reserve system, the governor denounced as "a menace to the country in general and the farmer in particular," a movement which he said a group of financiers were undertaking with a view of getting control of the federal reserve system.

Farming, the governor argued, should be conducted under the same modern methods as manufacturing and he urged farmers to organize for co-operative buying and selling. He also thought there was much "room for improvement in the production department."

STEAL HOOD FROM BURGLAR PROOF SAFE

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Louis Rosenfield of 4801 Drexel boulevard, had a burglar-proof safe and still has it, as a matter of fact. When Rosenfield left for a sojourn in California, he left a choice supply of hooch in the vault. When he returned the safe was still in its place and as formidable looking as ever. But the hooch was gone.

KILLED IN FALL FROM CAR

Marion, Sept. 2.—Charles M. Lambert, aged 55, died in a local hospital today from brain concussion, due to a fall in alighting backwards from a street car.

WHEAT CROP VERY POOR.

New Philadelphia, Sept. 3.—Less than a half crop of wheat is looked for by County Farm Agent George E. Holtz, who said that other crops would be normal. A survey discloses that the wheat crop averages only six bushels to the acre. The normal yield in this county is 14 bushels. Ice and low temperatures last winter and the Hessian fly are blamed.

TESTED RECIPES.

Paprika Veal With Noodles—Get about one and one-half pounds of the flank, brown one large sliced onion in two tablespoons of fat, then put in the veal and brown it one side, then keep turning it until it is well browned. Then add one heaping teaspoonful of paprika, pour one cup of boiling water over it and cover it and let it steam for one hour. Take out the meat and slice it into thin slices. Add two tablespoons of flour to the meat gravy, brown it, add a cup of milk and a cup of water. Stir until it is a smooth gravy about the consistency of thick cream.

Noodles—Break one egg into a bowl, add its bulk in water and about as much flour as it will take up (do not forget salt). Roll out very thin, let it lay for an hour, then roll it up and cut into wide strips. Boil in salted water. Drain and add about one-half cup of the paprika gravy, stir well. Place on the center of a large platter. Lay the slices of meat around, put a little of the gravy over the top and serve.

Combination Salad (meat and vegetables)—Two cups of cold boiled potato, preferably boiled with the jacket on, or potato left over from other meal, one-half cup of diced carrots, cooked, and another of peas, both leftovers, one large onion minced very fine and about three-quarters cup of meat left from the noon meal diced. This may be omitted. Marinate with a boiled salad dressing and serve on lettuce. Cover with finely minced parsley.

Blanc Mange With Cherry Sauce—Make a blanc mange of three cups of milk, one cup water, four tablespoons cornstarch, salt, three-quarters cup sugar and the yolks of two eggs. Pour into cup molds and place on ice. Beat the whites until they are very stiff, add three tablespoons of sugar and two tablespoons of preserved cherries. Invert the blanc mange when ready to serve and surround with the cherry fluff. Children like this as well as ice cream.

JAMS AND PRESERVES.

Spiced Jelly—One peck grapes, one quart vinegar, six pounds sugar, two tablespoons each of whole cloves and broken stick cinnamon.

Put all but sugar into kettle and heat slowly. Cook until grapes boil twenty minutes. Add sugar, boil five minutes, test and turn into glasses. Seal with paraffin.

Sweet Pickled Peaches or Pears—Remove skins from fruit and cut in halves. Stick two whole cloves in each piece of fruit and cook until soft in a syrup made by boiling together for twenty minutes two pounds brown sugar, one pint vinegar and one ounce stick cinnamon. This amount of syrup will serve to cook one peck of fruit. Seal in glass jars with paraffin.

Rhubarb Jam—Six pounds rhubarb, two lemons, five pounds sugar, one pound figs. Cut rhubarb in small pieces with skin on, mix with sugar and let stand overnight. In the morning cut figs and lemons in small pieces, add to rhubarb and sugar and cook very slowly over low flame for four hours.

GIRLS IN PARK VAMP CHICAGO POLICEMAN

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Women just gotta leave Policeman Barney Menke, the "perfect 36" of the Chicago Police Department alone or suffer the consequences! Menke, on duty at Lincoln Park, has complained to his superior officers that the park "vamps" insist on venting their love and affection with him as the headline principal. He has asked to be changed to another beat.

GROWERS POOL WOOL

Springfield, Ohio, Sept. 2.—Wool growers in Clark County plan to store their wool until the price advances according to announcement made by County Agent E. W. Hawkins. The growers refuse to sell for thirty cents a pound, saying that the price is too low. A year ago, Clark County wool ranged in price from sixty-five cents to seventy-eight cents a pound. Farmers in storing wool will be given financial relief by banks on warehouse receipts, it is stated.

"JUST A GIRL"

BY JANE PHELPS

TONY LUNCHES AT MARY'S

"I notice you have a preference for younger men," Mr. Claxton spoke, enigmatically, interrupting himself in his dictation.

"Why—what do you mean?" I asked, so surprised that for a moment I couldn't collect my thoughts.

Then I remembered. Tony, the night before. But why should he speak to me in that tone? "Just what I say! I offered to take you home in my car because I thought you looked tired. And because—" he hesitated a moment, then went on, and I was refused. I understood you to say you were going home in the street car. I see you an hour afterward in a taxi with. I must confess a very good-looking young man."

His tone was disquieting, yet thru it ran something very like a hurt—as if he were disappointed in me.

"Did you see us? I was on the car, Mr. Claxton. Tony Deland, a boy I knew at home when Dad was alive, got on the same car. I haven't seen him since I left New York. He insisted that we take a taxi so we could talk." I felt that much was due Mr. Claxton, an explanation of some sort after I had refused of allow him to take me home. But now I added in an entirely different spirit: "I had a delightful evening with him. We dined at the Blackstone, and afterward took another ride in the park. Tony was so insistent upon giving me a good time that I couldn't refuse him."

Mr. Claxton's face changed during my recital of how I happened to be with Tony. It had some way lightened. I was puzzled. He surely wasn't so finicky that he objected to his employees having a little innocent enjoyment out of office hours.

I don't yet know what made me want to explain to Mr. Claxton that Tony had taken me to the Blackstone; had given me just the sort of a good time he would have given the Zena Stewart he had known so long ago. But my employer had been kind to me, and I had sensed the hurt in his voice. I could not account for it. I couldn't bear that he should misunderstand me. I had refused to be with him alone the only time he had asked me; I had refused to ride in his car, and yet he had seen me, less than an hour afterward, riding in the park with a nice-looking, well-groomed man, a man of his own world. I felt I owed it to him, as well as to myself, to explain.

I was startled by the look of something very like relief that swept over his face. What did it mean? Had he dared to think me anything different from what I was? Why should he care anyway? I was only an employee he my employer. Then, too, why had he looked so relieved when I had explained?

Then I had another surprise. He asked abruptly: "That young man—is he anything to you?"

"Nothing but a good friend. He is going to lunch at the shop today, and then he is going to take Tom, Mary and me out Sunday evening. He leaves for Europe on business Monday." I can't yet explain just why I told so in detail all that concerned him not at all. But his genial "Thank you, Miss Stewart," repaid me.

"I realize I have no right to question you" he had said "and I thank you for being so frank with me." And this man who had given me back my faith in men, who had held up a position where I could hold up my head and have a little hope for the future, held out his hand and then asked me always to trust him when I needed a friend.

I gladly gave the promise, more stirred by the incident than I would have cared to acknowledge. Then we went prosaically to work as if nothing had interrupted the information which we had started to give a trader when he had questioned me.

"He came to lunch, and by the way he ate them pancakes I guess we won't have no party Sunday night!" Mary exclaimed when I reached home. "He's a dandy fellow, ain't he? He talked to me and Tom just as if he was like him—not as if we was just plain folks that had no chance for an education or anything. And what do you think he said to Tom?"

"I am sure I don't know!" "He said he would be honored if we would accept his invitation for Sunday night. How good!"

"That's not strange. Mary. Any man would be honored when two people as thoroughly good as you and Tom are accepts an invitation from him. Mr. Deland is a very shrewd young man. He could see the sort both you and Tom are. I am glad he enjoyed the pancakes."

"Enjoyed! I told Tom I'd bet if we followed him we'd find he had gone to a doctor! But I never saw anything like that!"
